

"GO SV" Cheer #1

Traditional
M. Jarvis

This musical score is for a cheer titled "GO SV" (Cheer #1), which is traditional and composed by M. Jarvis. The score is written for a large ensemble of instruments and percussion, all in 4/4 time. The key signature consists of two flats (B-flat and E-flat).

The instruments and their parts are as follows:

- Flute: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Clarinet in B: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Alto Sax: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Tenor Sax: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Baritone Sax: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Horn in F: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Trumpet in B: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "2x". It has a "3rd time" section starting in the fifth measure.
- Trumpet in B: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Trombone: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Baritone (B.C.): Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Tuba: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Snareline: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Tenorline: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Bass Drums: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x".
- Cymbals: Features a triplet of eighth notes in the first measure, marked "3x". It includes "HH Chokes" and "Crashes" in the fifth measure.